

Balloons orders should be placed how far in advance?

Reserve the date as early as possible by placing a balloon orders. Balloons N Party will make every effort to secure your date and time, however, any last minute requests will be subject to availability of product on-hand when your balloon orders are placed. Place your balloon orders at least 1 week in advance to ensure the correct amount of supplies and preparation time are available. Decor jobs often need more notice to allow time for designing and planning. Our schedules fill quickly, especially around the holidays and on weekends. Contact us to check availability.
